1. General Rules

Selected students will have the possibility to attend courses at Renmin during the mobility and have the credits recognized on their Luiss career at the end of the second year. If compliant with both universities’ rules and conditions, as for credits envisaged, attendance, deadlines, academic integrity, etc., participating students will receive two degrees, which will be issued according to each university’s procedures.

Selected students will spend abroad the 2nd year of the Master’s Degree in Global Management and Politics, during the a. y 2024-2025 and will be registered at Luiss during their stay at the partner university. They will not be required to pay additional tuition fees at Renmin, but they will continue paying fees to Luiss.

All expenses related to the participation in the program, notably transport, accommodation and food, administrative expenses, costs associated with securing a visa, medical/health/accident insurance, books and personal expenses, will be borne by students. Furthermore, students must comply with all the regulations of both universities in order to obtain the two Degrees.

Selected students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. The study plan can be found on the webpage of the program. Please refer to the table on page 1 of the present Call for Applications for the link to the webpage. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the double degree program. Once selected, students are required to carefully read and sign the document “General Understanding on Mobility for Double Degrees and Structured Exchanges”. Exams passed at the partner university during the mobility period will be transferred to the Luiss career according to the DD study plan. It is not possible to request an official renounce of the grades registration.

While every effort will be made to provide students with complete, accurate and timely information, Luiss reserves the right to change, amend, modify or revoke the aforementioned program. Luiss is not responsible for any cancellation or modification due to events beyond its control. If the program is cancelled or modified for these reasons, Luiss will inform all interested students in a timely manner.

2. Requirements

Students will be able to participate only if they comply with the requirements listed in the summary in point 2.4, respect the agreed timeframes and have no pending administrative issues with Luiss.

2.1. Weighted average grade

Students are required to hold a weighted average grade equal to or above 26/30.

The weighted average grade will be calculated based on the data available to the Student Office by 19 February 2024.

2.2. Exams

Students are required to pass all exams taught during the 1st semester and have the relevant grades registered by 19th February 2024.

Students are strongly encouraged to pass all exams taught during the 2nd semester, ahead of the mobility year.

Please note that the Learning Innovation Activities are required to be completed by the end of the academic year 2023/2024.

2.3. Language requirements

Students can apply if they have a level in English language certificated by:

- TOEFL min. 98/120 IBT
- IELTS min. 6.5
- Bachelor’s Degree totally taught in English

The English language certificates listed above must not be older than two years from the start of the mobility (1 September 2024). Applicants must meet the requirements using a single test. Hence we will consider as valid the English-language certificates listed above that have been obtained from September 2022 onwards.

Please note that documents certifying the enrolment in the Master’s Degree in Global Management and Politics are not considered as an English certificate for the present call. Only certificates listed above will be accepted.

3. Specific Program Rules

Applications from students or graduates holding Chinese citizenship cannot be accepted.

Selected students may be required to pay an application fee equal to RMB 800,00 (around € 120,00). This amount may be subject to change.

Students will obtain Renmin’s degree in June 2026, even though they can in some cases finish all the required activities earlier.

4. Application procedure

Applications can be submitted from 8 to 26 January 2024 at 5:00 PM. In order to apply, students must complete the application form and upload the required attachments in the web self-service area of the Luiss website¹. Only applications accompanied by all documentation and received by the application deadline will be considered. Students are encouraged to apply well in advance of the application deadline.

In case of doubts about the documents to upload or to get further information about the requested documents, students are invited to contact the International Development Office (international@luiss.it) before the application deadline.

Furthermore, students that might require compensatory tools or dispensatory measures during the mobility are invited to get in contact with the International Development Office international@luiss.it before applying to the program, in order to get more information on the special provisions guaranteed in the selected destinations.

4.1 Compatibility among the DD Programs

Students who have already been selected for a DD during the final year of the Bachelor's degree cannot apply to this program.

4.2 Compatibility with the International Student Exchange programs

Eligible students are allowed to apply to this program and the International Student Exchange programs.

Students applying to both Calls who will be selected for the DD must confirm their participation to the DD within the established deadline as detailed in paragraph "7. Acceptance".

If selected students confirm their participation to the DD, they will be automatically excluded from the selection for the International Student Exchange program and will be removed from the candidates list.

If selected students do not confirm their participation to the DD according to the rules explained in paragraph "7. Acceptance", they will remain eligible for the International Student Exchange program.

¹ Students are required to carefully read the Application Instructions published in the program webpage.

4.3 Attachments requested in the application

Please note that the application must be completed through the web self-service. You are required to follow the Application Instructions which are uploaded in the Useful Documents section of the webpage of each program.

- Transcript of Records of the exams taken abroad or a certificate issued by the host University concerning the study experience abroad;

- Certificate of internship/traineeship abroad, registered by a University Career Service, for at least 150 hours. Certificates other than those officially registered by the University Career Service might be submitted to the International Development Office, who reserves the right to consider them.

5.3 Bachelor's Degree final grade

Regarding the Bachelor's Degree final grade, the score will be calculated proportionally to the final grade, from a minimum grade of 100/110 up to a maximum of 110 cum laude.

5.4 Ex aequo

In case of ex aequo, curriculum vitae, personal statement, and knowledge of other languages will be considered. The students may be requested to send the relative documentation of experiences declared in the CV.

6. Communication of results

In compliance with current provisions on personal data protection, rankings will not be published. Students will be informed of the result of their own application only. Information such as other candidates' position in the ranking will not be disclosed. Selected students will receive the communication via-email by 26 February, 2024 (date may be subject to change) on their Luiss student e-mail account. Thus, students are strongly invited to check their Luiss email account every day while the selections are ongoing.

7. Acceptance

Selected students will be required to confirm their acceptance through written notification within one working day from the notification of results.

In case of refusal or missing notification by the deadline, the following candidate in the waiting list will be recalled. Recalled students will be required to confirm their participation by written notice within one working day.

Every refusal received after the established deadline will be transferred to the Deputy Rector for Master's Degrees Programs who will evaluate its motivations with the Dean of the Graduate School and the Director of Academic Services & Global Learning, and will inform the Graduation Commission of those refusals deemed not properly motivated.

After being selected, students will be requested to complete the enrolment process at Renmin by submitting an application according to the timeline to be communicated to the selected student. Failure to do so will imply exclusion from the program.

The application will involve collecting and submitting additional documentation, including Proof of Financial Support, Foreign Physical Examination Form, Statement of Guarantee and Certificate of no criminal records.

8. Additional points

The participation and successful completion of a DD program will provide additional points to the Final Grade of the Master's Degree, according to Luiss rules.
