Important Rules

- This study plan is designed for students taking part in DDIM Program with Fudan School of Management starting in the academic year 2024/2025.
- Interested students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the double degree program. Changes to the study plan are usually not possible and any request in this sense must be conveyed to the International Development Office, that cannot guarantee its feasibility.
- The list of courses to be taken abroad may be subject to changes should the academic offer at Fudan School of Management be amended.
- The listed exams must be taken and passed in the academic year indicated in the scheme (not after). Any possible change must be formally authorized by the Academic Commission.
- During the mobility, students will be subject to the rules of Fudan School of Management.
- Students enrolled in Management will be required to choose Individual Study Plan as specialization for the second year.
- For the courses taken at Fudan School of Management:
 - The total number of students who can obtain a grade of A or A- cannot exceed 30% of the whole class.
 - Only one retake is available for each course. The maximum grade for a retake is a D- in the Fudan scale (or 18/30 in the Luiss' scale).
 - Only one D- for the core courses is accepted to be awarded the Chinese degree.
- At the end of the program, if compliant with both Luiss and Fudan academic requirements, students will obtain both the Master of International Business Management (issued by Fudan) and the Master's Degree in Management/Corporate Finance (issued by Luiss).

Thesis

- Students will complete their theses during the second year at Fudan with two supervisors (one from each university) and one co-supervisor from Luiss.
- By the end of the 1st year, students will be assigned a Fudan supervisor and will be provided with further information on Fudan’s thesis procedure.
- Fudan oral defense:
 - For students who have graduated in the second year, students will take oral defense offline in FDSM in May and graduate in July.
 - For students who delayed graduation:
 - if the student is not in China, he/she will attend an online thesis oral defense held at Luiss with Fudan faculty attending the oral defense remotely.
 - if the student is in China, he/she will attend oral defense offline
- Luiss oral defense: the student will defend the thesis in an offline oral defense at Luiss in one of the available degree sessions.
- Graduating students might be selected for a blind evaluation by an external Chinese professor.
