Important Rules

- This study plan is designed for students taking part in the mentioned Double Degree Program and spending the academic year 2024-25 at CFAU.
- The list of courses to be taken abroad may be subject to changes should the academic offer at CFAU be amended.
- Students are required to read and understand the study plan and its rules. These are to be considered binding to the successful completion of the double degree program. Changes to the study plan are usually not possible. Any request in this sense must be conveyed to the International Development Office and the Academic Coordinator, that will evaluate the request.
- The listed exams must be taken and passed in the academic year indicated in the scheme (not after). Any possible change must be formally authorized by the Academic Commission.
- During the mobility, students will be subject to the rules of CFAU.
- At the end of the program, if compliant with both Luiss and CFAU academic requirements, students will obtain both CFAU Master's Degree (shuo-shi-xue-wei) in International Relations (issued by CFAU - China Foreign Affairs University) and the Laurea Magistrale in International Relations (issued by Luiss).

Thesis

- Students will complete their theses during their mobility period with two supervisors, one from each university, and it is considered an individual work
- Both supervisors must approve the proposal, which must meet the standards of both institutions.
- Students must respect the thesis procedures and deadlines from both institutions.
- Students are reminded that they are required to comply with the Luiss regular procedure regarding the thesis assignment, registration for the degree exam and upload of the thesis. For further information, please check the following page.
- Each institution will grade the final thesis according to its own standards.
- Luiss Students will defend their thesis in CFAU during Summer 2025 (as per CFAU deadlines), and will defend the thesis at Luiss starting from the autumn graduation session (October/November 2025).
